NOVEMBER 2008 NEWSLETTER

VETERAN'S DAY PARADE:

Nashville's Veteran's Day Parade is Tuesday, November 11th and starts at 11am. We will form up at 10:30am in front of Jim Reed Chevrolet on Broadway (our usual meeting place). You do not need to have full regalia to participate in the parade. Call John Norfleet at 883-5961 if you need more information.

CHRISTMAS PARTY:

Our next meeting is our annual Christmas Party (December 3rd). We will host the party at Donelson's Club House (4972). Divine Mercy Assembly members (2936) and their wives will be joining us. Social Hour starts at 6pm and Dinner at 7pm. Each couple should bring a dish to pass. Last names beginning with A-H: bring appetizers, I-P: bring side dishes (casseroles/vegetables) and Q-Z: bring desserts. Of course, if you have a specialty you plan to bring that doesn't fit this list that is fine. The list is a guide for couples not sure what to bring.

There will not be a White Elephant this year. Instead everyone is asked to bring food items to be donated to Ladies of Charity to use in their food baskets this year. The economy is bad and they don't have the donations they normally have to fill the Christmas Food Baskets this year.

We will still be collecting unwrapped gifts to be given to the children at Safe Haven.

You may also pay your dues at the party, so bring your checkbook. Dues are ($15.00), Bishop's Burse ($3.00) and donation to the Assembly ($10.00) for a total of $28.00.

THOUGHT(S) FOR THE SEASON

.....Life is a flame that is always burning itself out, but it catches fire again every time a child is born.
.....George Bernard Shaw (Irish playwright, 20th century)

.....You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose.
.....Theodor Seuss Geisel (Dr. Seuss) (American writer and illustrator, 20th century)

.....Do the things you fear to do and keep on doing it...that is the quickest and surest way yet discovered to conquer fear.
.....Dale Carnegie (American writer and developer of courses in self-improvement, 20th century)

.....Since time is not a person we can overtake when he is gone, let us honor him with mirth and cheerfulness of heart while he is passing.
.....Johann Wolfgang Von Goethe (German writer, 19th century)

.... Gratitude unlocks the fullness of life. It turns what we have into enough, and more. It turns denial into acceptance, chaos to order, confusion to clarity. It can turn a meal into a feast, a house into a home, a stranger into a friend. Gratitude makes sense of our past, brings peace for today, and creates a vision for tomorrow.
.....Melody Beattie (American writer, present day)

.....The road of life twists and turns and no two directions are ever the same. Yet our lessons come from the journey, not the destination
.....Don Williams, Jr. (American novelist and poet, present day)

NOTICE:

What a wonderful thing e-mail is. With the click of a button I can send information to every knight across the state, no matter where his location is. Even when that Knight is on vacation or working out of state, we have a connection that is always open. The only thing I need is an address to send the information to. My e-mail address is johnalannorfleet@aol.com. Please send me yours. If not, we may have to break out the phone tree, and I don't think we want to do that.

Respectfully,
